

Call for Tutorials

Blackseacom 2020, Odesa, Ukraine, 26-29 May 2020

Blackseacom 2020 will feature tutorials addressing main topics in communications and networking. Tutorials must fit within the scope of Blackseacom conference. Tutorials may be lectures, hands-on training, interactive workshops or a combination of the above. Successful tutorials proposals may educate the members of community of Communications and Networking on concepts, methods and tools and to advance the state of research within the community.

We seek proposals for half- or full-day tutorials on topics relevant to the Blackseacom community. The tutorial format is 1 hour and 45 minutes with a 10-minute break.

Submitted proposals should not exceed two pages in 1.5 space, Times 12-point font. Tutorial proposals should be emailed to the tutorial Co-chairs (see below) by March 31st, 2020.

A tutorial proposal should include the following information.

Title of the tutorial

Name(s) and affiliation(s) of the presenter(s):

Abstract (less than 300 words summary of the tutorial)

Significance and timeliness of the tutorial

Presenter/organizer biography

For further inquiries or to submit your proposal please contact the tutorial co-chairs:

Dr. Lela Mirtskhulava, Tbilisi State University/San Diego State University, Georgia

Dr. Toktam Mahmoodi, King's College London, UK, Email: blackseacom2020.tutorials@gmail.com